Description

This Louis XV/Louis XVI transitional style mahogany games table is a true masterpiece of cabinetmaking. Its top, magnificently adorned with floral marquetry, is highlighted by a bronze ingot mold and corner motifs, adding a touch of elegance and refinement. Unfolding, the top reveals a games table dressed in green felt and braid, perfect for friendly game nights. The apron, crafted with the same attention to detail, hides a clever drawer containing a backgammon apron, providing a practical and discreet storage solution. The whole rests on slightly curved legs, decorated with bronze falls and sabots, which add a touch of sophistication and stability to the structure. This mahogany games table is not only a functional object, but also a decorative piece of furniture that will enhance any interior with its
