Description

Circle of Juan Ribalta (Valencia 1597 - 1628) Pair of 17th century Old Master Paintings, each depicting two saints Oil on copper (protected with an oak panel), both 29.8 x 23.5 cm, outer dimensions of black and giltwood frames 39 x 33 cm One frame with label 'De Ribatta / Jean / 1597 - 1628' Provenance: private collection Baroness Tony Baert, Belgium* The decorative label on one of the frames, reading 'De Ribatta' refers to the Spanish painter Juan Ribalta (1597 - 1628), who is best known for his religious scenes. The paintings come from an old aristocratic collection and the original paint layer is covered by a discoloured and matt old varnish, with several little scratches and damages to both paintings and frames. They would benefit from a professional restoration, which will bring out the original
