Description

This pair of stylish table lamps was made in France in the 1970s. The cream leather is hand-stitched and the brass bases have acquired a lovely patina. We have had them rewired for the UK with a bronze twisted cable. We can change these for any destination; please contact us with any questions. Photographed with custom-made handmade shades, sold separately. Please contact us for help choosing and ordering your shades. Elegant mid-century French design. Simple and decorative.
