"The Conversation" Watercolor on Arches paper with watermark, signed lower left Dimensions on view: 50 x 32 cm Framed: 61 x 41 cm under glass
This beautiful watercolor by Maurice-Louis Savin depicts a group of men absorbed in a lively discussion. The artist powerfully conveys the attitudes, gestures and intensity of the exchange, using a warm palette of ochre, green and pink tones. Maurice-Louis Savin, born in Moras-en-Valloire in 1894 and died in 1973, was a complete artist: painter, engraver, illustrator and ceramist. He trained at the École des Beaux-Arts in Lyon and then in Paris. His work was marked by great diversity: scenes from daily life, landscapes, human figures, but also frescoes and decorative creations. Savin participated in the decorative arts movement of the 1920s and
