Description

Cushion cover made in patchwork of embroidered monograms, carefully cut from old sheets and tablecloths. The textile fragments are assembled using the crazy patchwork technique, with the seams skillfully concealed by delicate antique white trimmings. The whole piece is framed around the perimeter with a scalloped flounce, hand-embroidered, also sourced from antique linens.

Condition: used condition, overall satisfactory; presence of a few small holes, without major alteration to the structure or to its decorative charm.
