

Inkwell With Dog Decoration - Black Forest 19th Century

1 150 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Solid wood

Length : 27 cm

Height : 16 cm

Description

Beautiful object of curiosity representing a dog raised one paw on a tree trunk and the other inside a hollowed-out trunk. Originally, it was an inkwell, the head lifts and the hollowed-out trunk is used to place the pencils. Beautiful quality of sculpture, the dog has a lively expression, the eyes are made of glass. It is a work of the Black Forest from the middle of the 19th century. Perfect condition of the Sculpture. Missing a cup of the inkwell visible when you lift the head of the Dog. Shipping costs to France by Colissimo with tracking: EUR45

Dealer

Blandine Lefèvre

Antiquités, Objets d'art

Tel : 01 42 46 40 95

Mobile : 06 26 94 00 58 et 06 03 03 31 00

sur Rendez-vous

Paris 75009