Description

Stunning pair of Murano glass table lamps with white marble bases. Made in Italy in the 1960s. See our photos for the lovely gold glitter in the glass and the original switches. We have had these lamps rewired with a bronze twisted flex. This can be easily adaptable to any destination; please contact us with any questions. These lamps use standard bulbs and are therefore widely available. Photographed with custom-made handmade shades, sold separately. For more information, please do not hesitate to contact us.
