"Grand Versailles" The Grand Versailles service is an example of French classicism of the 17th and 18th centuries, which Voltaire called "Le Grand Goût". This service creates a luxurious setting, both sumptuous and regal. A highly decorated model, the collection is characterized by its rich details and spectacular trompe-l'oeil effects. More than 20 colors taken from silk tapestries, embroideries, trimmings and brocades found at the Palace of Versailles will transport you and your guests to a festive table fit for a king.
