Description

Vintage lamp model "Minou S" by Louis Kalff for Philips 1955's. Louis Kalff (1897-1976) is a Dutch designer and architect, emblematic of 20th-century industrial design. He joined Philips in the 1920s, where he modernized the visual identity and directed the design of the lighting fixtures. He is behind many iconic lamps combining sculptural forms, functionalism and modernity. Among his creations, the Minou S lamp is a rare and sought-after model, typical of the mid-century style. It is characterized by a thin base, a lacquered metal lampshade, often inclined or adjustable, and a soft light, designed for ambiance. This model expresses all the sober and functional elegance of Dutch design of the 50s and 60s. Discover all our other products on our
