Description

Curved element whose first destination was probably a comb/hair jewel, in the form of a barrette made of gold grains and fine pearls, topped with a bouquet of tie pins from all periods and materials, for a remarkable composition... All complement and highlight each other, by contrast of materials (fine stones, enamel, diamonds, fine and baroque pearls...) of volume, work, representations and periods (carved rosettes, cameos, enameled coat of arms, 19th century chimera, Art Deco palmette and crowns...), of shapes (including a sculpted ball, a polygon, a clover, enameled flowers...), in the center of which a remarkable dog's head with finely sculpted relief and realistic rendering. Being composed of various materials and metals, the default hallmark of the lowest title found was
