Description

France / 1900 / Pair Stools / wood, fabric /
Neo-classical Richly molded and sculpted pair of stools or footstools or ottoman, resting on curule legs connected by a bulbous turned stretcher. Crafted in Neoclassical style in France in the early 20th century. Both stools are re-upholstered with the same gold finished fabric. Lightweight and easy to move, these stools are perfect for extra seating in your kitchen, dining area, or living room. Their versatile design allows them to be used as footrests or low stools, making them a practical addition to your home.
