Description

Elegant pair of bedside cabinets from the Venetian area, made in the early 19th century. Their sober and harmonious design is distinguished by the tall sabre-shaped legs, which give the structure both lightness and balance. Crafted in cherrywood, partly solid and partly veneered, they feature a top drawer and a lower door with brass knobs. The warm grain of the wood highlights the quality of the material. Condition is excellent overall: only a small missing piece is noted, which will be restored before delivery. Dimensions: 43 x 32 cm - H 90 cm (legs height 28 cm).
