Description

Acrylic on canvas signed and dated by Antonio Seguí (1934-2022) Work titled on the back "De Dubai en verano" and dated 2018 Square format - Work painted in green Antonio Seguí is a painter, born on January 11, 1934, in Córdoba, Argentina. He moved to Paris in 1963. At the beginning of his career, influenced by artists such as George Grosz and Otto Dix, he practiced an expressionist figuration from which irony emerged. Little by little, his figuration evolved towards the absurd, building a kind of theater on the stage of which a man in movement frolics, seeking his place in the world. He attempts to orchestrate in his own way the hopes and follies of a human comedy, ironic, falsely naive and disturbing. A colorful and graphic world that seems to emerge from the world of comics. Light wood box frame
