Description

Polychrome metal sculpture, "Musician," 19th century
Le musicien arabe
Period: 19th century - Victorian style
Elegant metal sculpture with polychrome patina, depicting an Arab musician in traditional vertical striped clothing playing a stringed instrument. The figure, remarkably realistic and detailed, wears a wraparound headdress and red shoes, and stands on a decorated base with oriental motifs.
Material: antimony-type metal with refined original polychrome patina.
Height: approximately 80 cm.
Stylistic features: typical exotic sensibility of Victorian taste, with attention to detail in clothing and expression, in line with 19th-century Orientalism. A work of great visual impact and artistic quality, representative of the fascination with the Orient that characterized European art in
