Description

Armchair by Angel Pazmino in wood and red leather 1960's. The "Cotacachi" armchair, designed by Angel Pazmino for Muebles de Estilo in the 1960s, are true icons of mid-century South American design. The carved laurel wood frame, assembled by interlocking, supports a thick, hand-worked leather upholstery, reflecting Ecuadorian craftsmanship. The ensemble, both artisanal and sophisticated, combines comfort, solidity and ethnographic elegance - a timeless piece sought after by lovers of classic South American design.
