Description

Coffee table by Giovanni Banci for Hermès 2 pieces available, sold together or separately (price displayed per unit) This Hermès coffee table, probably designed in the 1970s, reflects the timeless elegance dear to the French house. Its gilded wrought iron structure and refined motifs, inspired by the symbolism of the horse bit, directly evoke the equestrian anchorage of Hermès. The glass top protects and highlights the metal architecture, while giving it a visual lightness - a signature combination of Maison Hermès furniture. This creation is distinguished by its modernized neoclassical aesthetic: the stylized rings and hooks align with the decorative tradition of Hermès, while retaining a strong contemporary imprint. Made with artisanal know-how and a high-end attention to detail, this
