Description

Superb rectangular jewelry box from the 19th century, made of finely chiseled and gilded bronze, resting on four small circular feet. The sides are delicately openworked and decorated with arabesques and foliage on a red background, offering a beautiful contrast. The lid features an oval medallion in Limoges porcelain, hand-painted, illustrating a gallant scene in the 18th century style, representing a romantic couple. The surround is beautifully crafted in gilded bronze, decorated with floral motifs and scrolls in relief. Has its original key.
