Description

Edmond Masson, "Group of Lions," bronze, signed, mid-19th century. Period: second half of the 19th century. Magnificent animal sculpture in bronze, signed on the base by French artist Clovis Edmond Masson (Paris, 1838-1913). The work depicts an intense group of lions: the male, a lioness, and their cubs, rendered with great dynamism and anatomical detail. The scene, set on a naturalistic rock, expresses the strength and realism typical of the French animal school of the late 19th century. Subject: Group of Lions. Material: patinated bronze. Period: second half of the 19th century. Dimensions: height 24 inches - width 18 inches - depth 12 inches. Signature: engraved "Edmond Masson" on the base. A work of remarkable quality and visual impact, representative of Masson's naturalistic
