Description

DURANTON (Jeanne), still life in an interior, oil on cardboard, signed, c.1900 Beautiful still life in an interior, signed Duranton lower right (Jeanne). Oil on cardboard with a generous, lively paste, vibrant palette of mauves, greens, reds and ochres. The bouquet of flowers placed on a round table stands out against a wall decorated with frames, in an intimate spirit close to the post-impressionist research around 1900. On the reverse, traces of study/brush wiping. To be compared with the French intimist/post-impressionist movement (around Bonnard, Vuillard, Lebasque, Manguin, etc.), a similar sketch preserved in the Paul Neveux collection, Museum of Fine Arts of Reims
