Superb oil on canvas depicting a lively hunting scene: a pack of hounds surrounds a wild boar in the heart of an autumnal forest. In the background, two huntsmen in red coats accompanied by their horse observe the scene. The composition highlights the energy and liveliness of the hounds, painted with a great sense of movement and detail. The forest atmosphere, with its warm autumnal tones, creates a realistic and decorative depth. This work bears witness to the French hunting pictorial tradition of the late 19th century, in the tradition of painters such as Charles Olivier de Penne, Paul
