Freemasonic Stamps And Dies

150 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Solid wood

Description

These two stamps and the Freemasonry matrix date from the 20th century. One of them comes from Thouars, a lodge decimated during the Second World War, recently reopened, which makes it a rare object. The other stamp and the matrix come from Tours, the stamp is made of rubber and the matrix is made of metal. For more information, please do not hesitate to contact us.
