Description

Irena Jaworska is a Polish contemporary artist, born in 1978 in Krakow, whose work is part of a multidisciplinary approach: painting, drawing, installation and performance. After studying at the Academy of Fine Arts in Krakow, she continued her training in France, where she became a student of Line Vautrin, a famous designer of jewelry and art objects, a major figure in 20th-century design and decorative art. Inspired by the dreamlike and poetic world of Line Vautrin, Irena Jaworska develops an artistic practice that explores the themes of memory, identity and metamorphosis. Her work is characterized by a sensitive and conceptual approach, mixing traditional materials and organic or ephemeral elements, to question the fragility of existence and the trace of time.
