Description

Portrait of an elegant young redhead woman smoking a cigarette, typically Art Deco. She has a boyish hairstyle, the fashion of modern women of these Roaring Twenties. The work exudes an atmosphere of lightness and refinement, highlighting the carefree and modern spirit of the 1920s and 1930s. It is dated in pencil at the bottom right "May 1928". This gouache on paper is a superb testimony to the refined and glamorous aesthetic of the Roaring Twenties and the liberation of women. Note a small lack of paper at the top right and perhaps 1 or 2 stains, but it may be a watercolor effect. It is protected by a glass. Format with the frame: 69 cm x 54.50.
