Description

Clock or small desk clock circa 1920 in solid silver and green enamel on a guilloché background. 8-day operation with two repeating gongs striking the hours, quarters and minutes (?). When the strike is activated, the minutes do not seem to chime. Dial signed Léon MAEGHT in Amiens. Roman numerals for the hours and railway for the minutes. Pear-shaped hands in blued steel. Works but needs servicing, sometimes stops. Models comparable to ours are signed by big names like Cartier or Louis Vuitton. We can take care of servicing the mechanism at a preferential rate, a quote can be drawn up on request. We are at your disposal for any request, please contact us by phone (06 01 49 14 24) or by email (remarot@gmail.com).
