Elegant Lady's Rosewood Box - 19th Century

390 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Rosewood

Width : 34,5

Height : 18

Depth : 23,5

Description

Period: 19th centuryOrigin: EnglandMaterials: Rosewood, velvet, bone, mother-of-pearlDimensions:Width: 34.5 cmHeight: 18 cmDepth: 23.5 cmRefined lady's box crafted in fine rosewood, made in England around the mid-19th century, featuring a polished finish and an elegant lightwood inlay on the lid.The interior, lined with green velvet and gilt trim, holds a charming assortment of period toilet accessories:various glass containers,grooming tools with bone and mother-of-pearl handles,neatly arranged compartments.The lower section includes a jewelry drawer, also lined in velvet, with shaped recesses for bracelets, rings, and other precious items.The lid features a folded green fabric letter pocket, both decorative and functional.Equipped with a working lock and

Dealer

Gabriele e Gionata Retini

Furniture, paintings, sculptures, objets d'art, chandeliers, antiques

Tel : 3395268391

Via Marco Polo 147

Bientina - Pisa 56031

original key.A piece of great elegance and charm, perfect for collectors or as a distinguished decorative object.