Description

Sorry, we only ship to France and EU, no export for the moment. A luxurious Louis Philippe-era salt bottle from translucent cut crystal, with a flat, violin-shaped shape. This bottle is crowned by a thick, vivid, matte gold mount adorned with highly embossed sculpted scrollwork. Eagle head hallmarks are on base and lid. Three green and redstones are set on neck, and eight stones and a pearl are set on lid. It looks like a work by Froment Meurice, but I did not see any maker's mark. 10.8cm x 4.2cm, gross weight: 80g. Good overall condition. If you look for flaws: chips on one side of crystal (photo), and it seems to me that hinge has been restored... Look carefully our photos. Shipping to France and European Union only. This lot is available for immediate purchase, payable by PayPal or credit card. -eclectic -
