Description
-------------

However, it is most important that the anatomical shape of the figure in the first piano is the same, that is to say, that the picture knows how to handle it and that it is a gallery that does not have a minimal sound, and with the person who intends to operate it and at the mansion of the boat. It is painted in its original form and in appropriate conditions. La sua cornice in wood of abete è original and coeva al dipinto. It is likely that an ambitious production will be processed.
