Description

We present this stunning, large vase, made in Italy, dating back to the early 20th century. The vase is crafted from polychrome glazed ceramic. The eye-catching decoration captures the eye with its magnificent, large flowers. Two large relief figures create a dramatic effect with a three-dimensional decoration: a crocodile and an eagle battling around the vase. Look closely at every detail of this vase and you'll be truly amazed. The vase features a mark under the base, possibly traceable to the renowned ceramists of Nove Bassano, Italy. This large, striking vase would make an ideal addition to an entryway table, living room, or dining room. It would become the focal point of the room, admired by all your guests. Add this vase to your prized artistic ceramic collection. As you can see from
