

Sculpted Horse Head Made Of Hand-blown Glass

80 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Parfait état

Width : 14

Height : 23

Description

This piece depicts a finely sculpted horse head made of hand-blown glass, characteristic of the Venetian Murano tradition. The horse is shown in profile, with a jagged mane that emphasizes the movement and dynamism of the sculpture.

It is a handcrafted, hand-blown piece with beautiful transparent finishes and a finely detailed mane. Elegant and expressive, it captures the light and adds character to a bookshelf, desk, or display cabinet.

The piece is in perfect condition, with no chips or scratches.

The original Murano label is present at the base of the object.

Dealer

MUSE

Art et décoration objets anciens

Mobile : 0638811732

Rosheim 67560