Description

We offer you this splendid and refined pedestal table, made in Italy in the mid-19th century during the Louis-Philippe period. This square-top pedestal table features meticulous inlay workmanship, crafted by skilled artisans. The solid walnut top is decorated with an inlaid checkerboard pattern made from different-colored woods to create a unique effect. The inlay work extends throughout the table; you can see small decorative details on the edges, the central pedestal, and the feet. The tabletop is supported by an elegant turned pedestal and three legs. Functionally, its compact size allows it to fit easily even in small rooms. You can use it as a pedestal table next to an armchair or between two sofas, or to enhance a small corner of the room. Wherever you choose to place it, this antique
