Description

Oil on cardboard panel 27 cm x 15 cm sold with its gilded frame 37 cm x 25 cm monogrammed lower left representing a pointillist seascape . Painting mid 20th century. Perfect condition. Sold with invoice. A vibrant work executed in a technique derived from Pointillism, where fragmented brushstrokes create a dynamic and luminous surface. Although the artist remains unidentified, this canvas illustrates the post-war fascination with the chromatic explorations of Seurat and Signac, here reinterpreted in a freer, more decorative
