

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Louis Travert (1919) - Original Lithograph Signed "bouquet Of Roses"

590 EUR

Signature : TRAVERT

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Vellum

Length : 95

Width : 77

Description

Superb color lithograph by Louis Travert (1919), depicting a bouquet of red roses arranged in vases, on a modern and nuanced background. Artist's proof EA 13/15, numbered and signed in pencil by the artist lower right. Technique: Color lithograph on art vellum Limited edition: Artist's proof (EA 13/15) Dimensions of the work alone: 69 × 51 cm Framed dimensions (with glass and mat): 95 × 77 cm Presentation: Unique and modern frame, glazed, of high quality Condition: Exceptional, vibrant colors, no visible alteration This lithograph offers a pictorial rendering very close to watercolor, with delicate transparencies and subtle nuances, which reinforce its refined and decorative character. Work in modern figurative style, with decorative accents typical of the second half of the 20th century. Travert

Dealer

MELDEVA ART

Tableaux, dessins et oeuvres d'art

Mobile : 0645891037

Victor Hugo

Mont-de-Marsan 40000

combines a free and colorful pictorial treatment with a readable floral composition, combining modernity and decorative tradition. Biography Louis Traver (born in 1919 in Moigné, Ille-et-Vilaine) is a French painter and engraver. His floral compositions and landscapes are imbued with decorative flair and subtle use of color. A renowned lithographer, he has produced numerous prints sought after by collectors. His works are regularly auctioned and are featured in several private collections.