Description

Expressive portrait of a young man with a beard, in a suit and bust, bow tie and pince-nez. A notable, probably a Doctor, who looks directly at you with his beautiful pince-nez. A lovely painting, this work accompanied by its beautiful frame with ears in stuccoed gilded wood with a large period molding. A beautiful painting, this well-painted portrait with a strong personality, of good sugar size and very realistic, deliberately on a dark background his beautiful face seems alive and "comes out of its canvas", in short a success for this marvelous and benevolent painting signed M. Furgole (second part of the 19th century). This oil on canvas and frame has strong decorative potential because it is remarkably executed and well framed; this painting has been cleaned in our workshop and delicately
