17th Century Architecture - 6 Exceptional Langres Stone Arches

1 800 EUR

Period : 17th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Stone

Width : 6,50 m

Height : 50 cm à l'axe médian

Depth : 30 cm

Description

17th Century Architecture6 Exceptional Langres Stone ArchesResulting from the careful dismantling of a decorative architectural ensemble within the walls of a Louis XIV period buildingWe offer 6 exceptional golden Langres stone arches in lots, pairs, or individually.The evident decorative aesthetic quality and exceptional technical execution of these 6 pieces merit their reuse in a high-quality architectural context.Special Features:- 6.50 m flight in a single piece without reinforcement- Arch minimally lowered, testing the distribution of induced forces- Exceptional quality of finish. Barley grain carving and chiseled edge angles- Blond stone with no veining, defects, or weaknesses- Remarkable proportions:. Thickness in front view: 50 cm at the centerline of the arch..

Dealer

RENAISSANCE CONCEPTS
Reclaimed Building Material
Tel : 0603310311
Mobile : 0603310311

26 route de Dijon
Ville-sous-la-Ferté 10310

Thickness in underside view: 30 cm.The overall quality is such that these re-mounted units will offer a distinct aesthetic appeal to the premisesfor which they are intended.Uses:- Harmonious support for interior mezzanines- Cladding of exterior walkways such as those seen in villages in the South of France- Support for footbridges between two water points- Support for a bridge deck over a river arm- Cladding of wide garage entrances- Graceful exterior junctions between two adjoining buildings, etc.Finances:For one piece: EUR1,800For a pair: EUR3,500For all 6 pieces: EUR9,000We are available to assist you with optimal implementation.Our usual carrier will provide you with a free delivery quote in exchange for your postal code.Our prices include all taxes.