1 200 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Sterling silver

Description

Pair of twisted candlesticks in 800 ? silver, goldsmith Delheid, 19th century Elegant pair of candlesticks known as the torso model, in 800 ? silver, signed by the goldsmith Delheid (Leiden). Their twisted shaft, with its fluid and elegant movement, rests on a contoured base with lively lines. They retain their original removable bobèches, a rare and sought-after detail. This model, very popular in Belgium, directly reproduces the shapes and style of the 18th century candlesticks, which were very successful and were reissued in the 19th century by the great goldsmith houses. Refined work, beautifully balanced and in very good condition.

Characteristics: 800 ? silver, hallmarked, goldsmith Delheid (Leiden) Pair of twisted candlesticks with original removable bobèches
