Description

Sorry, we only ship to France and EU, no export for the moment. Wonderful "Perspective view of lower part of an arsenal (1760)" by Georg Balthasar Probst (1732-1801), German artist to whom we owe many high quality optical views, Watercolored in his studio, at the time, it was re-pierced at level of wall lights to allow the illusion of visiting of this arsenal at sunset: very well done. Engraving was cut, and nicely placed in a wash mount still fresh in color. Originally, the text: Per Telescopium exhibitio partis inferioris armamentarii ..., Perspective reproduction of the lower part of an arsenal. (1760) engraving: 41cm x 29cm, with mat: 47.5cm x 36cm, Good condition, pleasant to look at, not insolated. Take a good look at our Photos Shipping France and European Union exclusively
