Description

Very original and rare antique stool called commode because it hides the trapdoor for the potty. Rare to find them in these noble materials like solid mahogany, mahogany veneer and gold embossed leather. Small footstool also in embossed leather. Early 19th century, empire or early Victorian period. In good condition with its patina of time. Some defects on the leather but very presentable. To divert into a stool or presentation column, full of charm. Dimensions: height 48 cm, diameter 41.5 cm. Full of charm.
