Description

Pair of reliquaries to pose in architectural form in gilded wooden rods richly carved with flowers on the front and on the sides, the back decorated differently with regular friezes, presenting eight glazed faces. The glasses are intact, with their irregularities and small air bubbles, held by strips of pink paper which seem original with the exception of three of them. Dimensions: length 21 cm - width 15 cm - height 25 cm. Very good general condition, tiny lack at the back in a lower left corner, and small gap of two panes on less than half a centimeter, all documented in photos. Extremely rare in pair and in this state of conservation. No postal shipment due to fragility, collection in Paris by the buyer or by the carrier of his choice, under his responsibility.
