Painting Depicting "adoration Of The Shepherds"

7 500 EUR

Period : 17th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Oil painting on copper

Description

A splendid oil on copper painting depicting the sacred scene of the Adoration of the Shepherds, crafted with great attention to color detail and facial expressions. This work, from the Flemish school of the mid-17th century, depicts the moment when the shepherds pay homage to the Child Jesus, surrounded by Mary, Joseph, and other devout figures. The center of the composition is illuminated by a golden halo that dominates the Madonna and the newborn, creating an effect of intense spirituality. Attributable to the painter Cornelis de Baellieur the Elder (Antwerp, 1607-1671), who began his career in his native Antwerp, where he had "Lisart" as an excellent tutor. He became an established master himself--he was a free master of the prestigious Antwerp Guild of Saint
