Description

Large set of stained-glass windows from a Bordeaux residence. A flowery landscape where butterflies, birds, and dragonflies wander among irises, palm trees, morning glories, and a Japanese cherry tree descending from the sky. The stained-glass windows have been restored. A work by Gustave Pierre DAGRANT, a great 19th-century Bordeaux master glassmaker. Measurements of the stained-glass windows: 3 stained-glass windows: 131 cm high 65 cm wide 3 transom windows: 27.5 cm high 65 cm wide We can customize the stained-glass windows to your size and install them. I also have old joinery that can be repurposed.
