Richly Carved Walnut Wood Bench "folk Art"

6 800 EUR

Period : 18th century
Condition : Parfait état
Material : Wallnut
Length : 173cm
Height : 97cm
Depth : 60cm

Description

"FOLK ART" bench in walnut wood, late 18th early 19th century...Backrest decorated with musicians' trophies presenting a quiver, music paper, a flute, all supported by two vine branches bearing fruit, and two snakes coiling around a reed on either side of the armrests representing a wild cat biting the neck of a swan acting as an armrest support. The lower, curved, scalloped crossbar is also carved with a plant decoration, the side crossbars are also curved and carved with foliage decoration...Unique Piece...!France...?Early 19th century period

Dealer

Art Gallery
furniture , paintings , works of art and curiosities
Mobile : 33+(0)682317339

Rousson 30340