

Large Neoclassical Antique Porcelain Biscuit Statue: Ceres, Allegory Of Summer, 52cm

430 EUR

Signature : Porcelaine de Paris

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Porcelain

Description

Large porcelain biscuit statue, mythological scene representing Demeter or Ceres, allegory of summer and abundance. The goddess in the guise of a young woman presenting fruits from a cornucopia that she has on her hip. Antique production from the 19th century in Neoclassical style, ideal to complete a Louis XVI or Empire decor. Beautiful centerpiece to place on a chest of drawers or fireplace or on a festive table for a refined dinner. It is a piece decorated from all angles, intended to be seen from all sides in the center of a table for example or with its back to a mirror. Excellent general condition. Height: 52.5cm Base diameter: 16.5cm

Dealer

GSLR Antiques

French Antiques - 18th to 20th century.

Mobile : +33658910924

4 rue Vicat

Grenoble 38 000