Description

COD 11370 A pair of late 18th-century Italian chairs. Carved walnut furniture in Renaissance style with a seat and backrest in high-quality chiseled leather. The chairs are adorned with original brass studs and plumes, and have a beautiful patina. Rigid and only moderately comfortable, these chairs are best suited for decorative purposes. Seat height: 50 cm. Ideal for a living room or study, they have a strong visual impact, making them ideal for antique dealers and interior designers. The wooden frame has undergone minor restoration work over time and shows minor signs of wear. The leather is finely decorated with cherubs, flowers, birds, mythological animals, and masks, and is in excellent condition and beautifully patina. Overall, the furniture is in good condition. As
