Description

Elegant pair of Italian lamps dating from the 1970s, made of celadon ceramic with a refined and luminous glaze. The stem features a slightly raised geometric decoration, combining modernity and organic inspiration, mounted on a transparent plexiglass base that gives them a visual lightness and a contemporary touch. Their slender and understated silhouette, combined with the softness of celadon, makes them versatile pieces, ideal for both classic and modern interiors. A set of good size but airy with a beautiful presence: perfect for bringing a touch of sophistication to a living room, bedroom or office.
