Description

CIVILIZATIONS, CULTURES Lightweight stone statue carved depicting a temple guardian dragon (in the form of the deity Garuda) Bali, mid-19th century. Ancient stone sculpture of a temple guardian DWARAPALA. These figures once guarded the entrance of a temple, warning humans and negative energies not to pass. Their ferocious appearance is a warning that only those with good intentions will be ushered and guided to ascend a higher path. Wear and missing parts visible in the photos; nice patina. Dimensions: 26 cm height * 12.5 cm width and 13 cm depth
