Description

20th Century French oak trestle table with scalloped legs and plank top France / 1950 / dining table / oak / Mid-Century / Rustic / French Provincial / Brutalist Solid oak trestle dining table in the manner of the Danish designer Henning Kjørnulf. This exquisite dining table features a sculpted trestle base and substantial wood plank top with beautiful wood grain. This fine mid century table will complement many interior styles. With a heavy focus on functionality, this design style leans toward modernism, while incorporating coziness. The design style aims to provide a way for people to live more sustainably and in harmony with one another. Its minimalist design, supported by two robust legs, ensures stability without compromising on elegance, making it perfect for dining, working, or
