Description

Oil on canvas, 17th century, Baroque school.
Beautiful depiction of the penitent Mary Magdalene, seated in meditation. The saint, with long blond hair, holds a wooden cross, while a skull and an open book recall the vanity of earthly goods. Beautiful warm palette enhanced by deep blue drapery, subtle chiaroscuro and a face of great gentleness. Landscape in the background brings depth and atmosphere. Presented in a gilded frame, the work combines spiritual intensity and decorative elegance, typical of the softened Baroque foreshadowing the Rococo taste. 19th century stretcher
