Description

We offer this splendid antique Italian marble column, dating back to the late 19th century, perfect as a centerpiece for your decor.Featuring a simple structure, it's crafted from two different colored marbles for a dramatic effect. The distinctive black marble with light veining alternates with the white marble typical of the Tuscan area.The column shows signs of wear consistent with age and use. There is no structural damage (please carefully examine the photos for details).This stunning column is perfect for displaying a bronze, marble, or ceramic sculpture or vase. Wherever you choose to place it, it will make a stunning and captivating furnishing accessory.
