Description

France, 1960, lovely brass box depicting a deer. In this decade and until the end of the 1970s, the representation of the deer was very fashionable in France. The creations of furniture and decorative objects representing it appeared in the most beautiful pages of decoration magazines in atmospheres that great decorators today call the Giscardian style. Today, these timeless sculptures can be introduced into all types of interiors. Timeless creation of beautiful quality.

Dimensions per unit: Length 25 x Height 22 x Depth 12 (cm). The scale indicator in the last photograph is a small model of a lighter from a well-known brand. Good condition except for slight normal wear and tear without impact. We take particular care with our packaging by using optimal protection. Shipping is carried out with
