Description

We offer this beautiful 20th-century (circa 1980s) Italian vintage lantern with a single internal bulb. Made of glass and a brass frame. Its lines are simple and geometric, free of excessive ornamentation; the brass has acquired a beautiful patina over time. Perfect for illuminating a hallway, entryway, stairwell, or even small rooms. You can add or remove links to the chain to make it longer or shorter; we can do this, but this must be agreed upon before ordering. Please note that the height of the lantern without the chain is 22.04 inches / 56 cm. The electrical system has been newly rewired.
